EXAMINER'S COMMENT ON THE DRAWINGS

The application was filed with the incorrect drawings. New drawings were filed 06 October 2005 and 21 February 2006. Since the new drawings are fully enabled by the original disclosure, it is not seen that they constitute new matter. Thus, the drawings submitted 06 October 2005 and 21 February 2006 are hereby approved.

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Many of the cited prior art references disclose a similar arrangement to that claimed. However, none of them disclose the specific combination further provided that the differential transistors both receive the same "reference voltage" and that one has a different "dimension" than the other. Since the specifically recited combination is not found disclosed in any of the prior art references, the case is in condition for allowance.
